LAKE IRIS

KEEP THE HOME LAWN BLOOMING with IRIS, PEONIES and DAHLIAS

Lake Iris Botanical Experimental Grounds is a private garden devoted to experiments in botany and of course in the propagation of thousands of plants there is an accumulation of surplus stock, that are very desirable to you, but are duplicates with us. We dispose of them in order to make room for MORE EXPERIMENTS. OUR LOSS is YOUR GAIN.

There is no reason why there should not be beautiful flowers growing around every AMERICAN HOME.

Order early and get the best.
